

May 2022 Newsletter

Rev. Joanne Anquist will be on a well deserved sabbatical May - July 2022.

Join us in wishing Joanne a rejuvenating sabbatical!

Rev. Joanne Anquist is now on sabbatical. While she is away Rev. Bill Weaver from Ogden will be continuing to provide most of the worship services. Rev. Danah Cox has been moved up to full time during the sabbatical.

COVID Update

Out of an abundance of caution, and considering the current increase in COVID-19 cases and resultant hospitalizations in Alberta, we have determined it is prudent for us to continue masking during worship services.

McDougall continues to keep the safety of our congregation a priority and for the time being, mask wearing is still required during worship services. This will continue to be evaluated on an ongoing basis.

Coffee Time is Back!

Following our worship services on Sunday we invite you to join us in the Fellowship Hall for a hot beverage and a chance to catch up.

If you haven't picked up your reusable mug, you can get yours from the office. We encourage you to wash it and bring it back each week.

Coffee time is back following our Sunday Worship Services. While masks are required in the Sanctuary, they are recommended in Fellowship Hall.
